FNCB Makes Banking Easier With Mobile Deposit

New feature allows customers to deposit checks from their mobile device

First National Community Bank (FNCB), a leader in mobile banking solutions, announced today a new mobile banking feature that allows customers to conveniently deposit checks simply by snapping a picture using an iPhone, iPad, iPod Touch or Android mobile device.

FNCB's mobile deposit, which can be used by personal banking customer with access to FNCB Online Banking and an eligible deposit account, allows customers to make deposits anywhere at any time. The customer first selects the deposit check feature, photographs the front and back of the check, chooses the account and confirms the amount. The check is then processed electronically from start to finish.

"The addition of mobile deposit continues our commitment to provide innovative solutions that embrace technology and help to make life easier for our customers," said Theresa Surma, vice president, operations manager at FNCB. "Mobile deposit is another way FNCB makes it convenient and easier for customers on-the-go to achieve their financial goals."

The new mobile deposit feature arrives as more consumers are choosing mobile banking services over traditional options to conveniently make deposits and receive funds faster. It's a convenience that was previously available only to business customers through Remote Deposit Capture.

"It's a very quick and secure process that saves our customers time and money," added Surma.

In addition to the remote deposit feature, FNCB's mobile app, which is available through the Apple App store and Google Play, lets customers safely and securely pay bills, view account balances, transfer funds between accounts and locate the nearest branch or ATM.
